

July 20 2016 Full Moon Meditation
Gathering of Masters and Angels for the Full moon in July to Create a world of Peace and Harmony

Close your eyes and become aware of your breath. Take a few slightly deeper breaths and become aware of your body as it connects with the chair ... be aware of your feet firmly touching the ground below you. From the soles of your feet, feel golden roots grow and reach down into the earth below, penetrating into the great crystal at its core ...connecting firmly with the energies of the earth ... anchoring you to the very heart of Mother Gaia. Become aware of her energies coming back up through your strong golden roots and entering your body through your earth star chakra Up through your feet, ankles, knees, thighs, hips, pelvis, stomach, solar plexus, and lungs and into your heart. Feel golden light in your heart traveling up through your spinal column ...reaching all the way up and out through the top of your head connecting you to the energies of the Universe and the Angelic Realms.

Now visualize a beautiful golden beam of light, descending from Source, pouring down through your Stellar Gateway Chakra into your heart...integrating the energies in your heart. A golden ray from the Angels showers down flowing through your chakras and lighting them up ...expanding your aura with the soft golden ray of the Angels. You are at peace. You feel loved. You are protected.

Be aware of Archangel Michael's presence as he places his blue cloak of protection around you, bringing the hood up over your head and zipping it right up to your chin. And now ask your Guardian Angel to come really close to you. Let him take your hand and led you out of this room. You feel your heart is opening, and your angel is giving you complete confidence. Relax and let your angel take you on this very special journey.

Your angel takes you to special place where the still deep blue sea stretches as far as you can see and merges with the deep blue sky. The silver moon sparkles on the surface of the ocean. You feel calm and are at peace. Ahead you see a path filled with magical moonlight and your unicorn is waiting for you there.

Your unicorn comes forward to greet you and he directs his magical horn to your third eye. You feel a download of wisdom pouring in. He gives you a special gift... a beautiful crystal pendant and invites you to climb onto his back. Your Guardian Angel helps you to climb up with ease and sits behind you, gently enfolding you in his wings.

Your Guardian Angel tells you that you are being taken to a sacred etheric temple to attend a ceremony where the masters gather in July every year. You look into the distance and see a shining, sparkling golden light. You reach there and realise that you are in a beautiful temple. You step down from your unicorn. Angels are radiating golden light in front of you. Your guardian angel takes your hand again and leads you to the golden steps. Beautiful angels line up on either side. You walk along with your angel until you come to a large doorway. Your Guardian Angel motions to you to step through the door. There is perfect balance, perfect harmony and perfect peace all around you.

You can see yourself in the presence of someone who epitomizes love...a being of light... Jesus, Buddha or Mother Mary and any Ascended Master of your choice. You feel the love flowing from the Master and warming you. Now they are talking about a situation in the world where peace and love is needed. You send peace and love there, filling the place up with the same love you experienced from the master.

As you do this you hear the Angels of light, the mighty Archangels, the Principalities, the Powers, the entire spiritual realm, even the Cherubim and Seraphim, singing over the world. Let love and light and peace touch all on earth.

Mother Mary, Queen of the Angels appears with wonderful aquamarine light and sends you compassion and love. She asks you to concentrate on your heart's desire for world peace and visualize it clearly now, knowing that if it is for your highest good and the highest good of everyone else, it will manifest.

She asks you to invoke the Angels of Peace and Love to gather in all places of the world to spread their peace and love on Earth. You see angels of Peace and Love put their wings around people, animals and natures enfold them in peace and love.

You feel your soul group, all those who originate from the same monad, to surround you. Have a sense of the much beautiful energy that is with you, supporting you. Know that you are helping to clear and prepare the world for ascension. Be aware of light shining from Crystal pendant on your heart and radiating in all directions. You are one of the mighty Light families. You can spread Christ consciousness wherever you go.

Angels and you fill the energy of the earth with the Pink Ray of Love and other colours glorious Ray. See it flooding into the ley lines of the earth, the cosmic portals and the planetary chakras.

Your angel and unicorn feels so proud of you and are honoured that you are in this very special place. You are a Master. You bask in the glow of the golden light and feel the energies infusing your body.

Feeling totally refreshed now, full of positive thoughts and glorious energies, you give thanks for all that you have receivedyou give thanks to Masters, Archangels and all the other angels who came forward to assist on your journey.

Your unicorn and your angel now guide you from the golden temple, back to beautiful seaside, and then your place in the room. They stay with you for a while as you fully arrive back and as they step back you feel strong and in your own power.

Take a few slightly deeper breaths. Be aware of your strong golden roots holding you firmly to the earth below. Feel the energy coming down from your head and through your spinal column. Let each chakra be open to a point that is just right for you and protect them with a symbol.

Be aware of Archangel Michael's blue cloak of protection surrounding you. Feel of your feet firmly on the ground and your back as it connects with the chair. When you are ready, wriggle you fingers and toes, have a good stretch and open your eyes.
